The Main Street Cowboy’s iconic green benches are funded by sponsorships yearly and used by local groups, organizations and individuals for a many different reasons. Some use them as advertising for their business while others use them as memorials to loved ones past and present. Regardless of the reason, the contributions are one of the many ways we, as an organization earn the funds needed yearly to be able to provide Pendleton and the surrounding communities with some of the various services we provide, plus enables us to put on; “The Greatest Free Show In The West”. Annually over 8000 benches are requested for use for various functions throughout Pendleton and surrounding communities. Each bench is carefully handcrafted and painted by longtime Pendleton resident and Main Street Cowboy Kirt Skinner.

Note: Please print in clear block letters. If symbols are used, please draw as clearly as possible how it should look.
